

THE DEPUTY DIRECTOR OF CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE

13 July 1976

Mr. Edward C. Griepengerl
108 W. 39th Street
Baltimore, Maryland 21210

Dear Ed:

Thanks a lot for your nice note and the Baltimore newspaper clipping concerning my new appointment. It will be a difficult task but I think there will be as many opportunities as there will be problems.

You used kind words in describing our working relationship in past years in MALTA tennis activities. It has always been a pleasure to work with you and I look forward to continuing friendship and association.

All the best.

Faithfully yours,

E. H. Knoche
